Nobody has been more significant to me in my quest of this skripsi than Allah SWT. There are no other words to express other than sincere gratitude for the compassion and kindness that allowed this skripsi to be correctly assembled. I have been following Your guidance every day. You are the one who gave me permission to complete my degree. And, thus, I will continue to put my future in Your capable hands.

Then, I want to convey my gratitude to my supervisor, Mr. Andi Wirantaka, S.Pd., M.Hum., who has made this possible. I was able to finish all of the writing phases of my work due to his direction and suggestions. I also want to express my gratitude to the ELED and faculty staff, for their important assistance throughout my bachelor's degree. I am unable to thank them enough for their patience and feedback, which have been really helpful.

In addition, without my parents' love and support, which I always have by my side no matter what I do, this endeavor would not have been feasible. They are exemplary models to follow. Their confidence in me has sustained my enthusiasm and upbeat attitude throughout this process. I also thank them for their affection and assistance throughout this journey. The journey would not have been possible without them. Lastly, I want to express my gratitude to all of the study subjects for their cooperation and readiness to share their insights. Without their help, this job would not have been feasible.

 Sincerely,
Annastya Wahyu Pramesti
