

ABSTRACT

This study aimed to analyze and provide empirical evidence Effect Analysis of Financial Performance Ratios form Independence, Effectiveness and Ratio Ratio Efisinesi for Economic Growth, Unemployment and Poverty and Economic Growth against Unemployment and Poverty and Unemployment on Poverty in counties and cities in DIY Period 2008- 2013. This study uses secondary data derived from the Local Government Finance Report (LKPD) in 2008-2013. Object of research is the counties and cities in the province. Sampling in this study using purposive sampling method. The method of analysis of this study using multiple linear regression with a significance level of 5%. Research indicates that the variable ratio of Independence, Effectiveness and Efficiency Ratio Ratio influential and significant impact on economic growth, unemployment and poverty.

Keywords: Financial Performance Ratios form Independence, Effectiveness Ratio, Ratio Efficiency, Economic Growth, Unemployment and Poverty.