

ABSTRACT

This research purpose to analyze the influence of Capital, Education And Human of Capital to Income the Owner of Sanggar Batik Kayu In Krebet Village. Variable of research are capital, education and human of capital. Samples of research amount to 54 respondents, This research used purposive sampling method which is determining method of the number of random sample taken based on some criteria. The statistical method used in this study was mutiple regression.

The result of this study showed in parcial not all variable have positive effect and significant. Variable capital and human of capital has thepositive and significant effect to the incom. Education has un-significant effect to the income. The goodness of fit testing showed capital, education and human of capital that to income with count F value 52,699 and significant 0,000. The adjusted R^2 was 0,745, that showed the influence of capital, education, and human of capital at 74,5 %.

Keyword: capital, education, human of capital, and income