ACKNOWLEDGEMENT

All praises to Allah SWT, The Almighty, the lord of the worlds, who has given me the gracious mercy and tremendous blessing that enable me to accomplish this undergraduate thesis. May the peace and blessings be upon Prophet Muhammad, the Messenger of kindness who has brought me from the darkness to the lightness.

The author would like to express her sincere gratitude to all those who have contribute in the process of writing this undergraduate thesis especially for the supervisor of this undergraduate thesis, Arie Kusuma Paksi, Ph.D. Also, to all of the board examiners, Ali Muhammad, S.IP., MA., Ph.D, and Sidiq Ahmadi, S.IP., M.A. To all my lecturers who have taught and provided knowledge since I started lectures until I compiled this thesis. The author believes that without the help and guidance from those honourable persons, this undergraduate thesis will not be finished properly.

This undergraduate thesis entitled “INDONESIA-MOZAMBIQUE PREFERENTIAL TRADE AGREEMENT; THE STEPPING STONE OF INDONESIA IN AFRICAN CONTINENT?” was written as one of the requirements for obtaining a Bachelor of Political Science degree and to be submitted to the Department of International Program of International Relations, Faculty of Social and Political Science. The author realizes that the writer has limitations and realizes that this thesis is far from perfect. Therefore, the writer hopes that there will be criticism and suggestions for the perfection of this thesis in the future. Hopefully this undergraduate thesis could be useful to enrich the International Relations studies in the future.

EXTENDED GRATITUDE

I dedicated this page as an expression of my gratitude to the closest people who played a big role in my undergraduate study, to those who have encouraged and helped me through the process, to the great people that I have ever known in my undergraduate journey. Therefore, I extend my unconditional thanks to:

1. This thesis is a sheet that represents as a silent witness of gratitude to Allah SWT and Prophet Muhammad SAW. Thank you for Your endless blessings, for every good opportunity that You have given and has listened to all the prayers as well as granted the best for author.
2. To my beloved parents, my father and my mother, for always supporting my dreams and every choice I made. Because of them, I able to get through all the obstacle that I have been through in this undergraduate journey.
3. To my brother, we both know we only have each other beside our parents. I really appreciate you for being the not so polite brother yet cheer me up in the toughest time.
4. To my advisor, Mr. Arie Kusuma Paksi, Ph.D., thank you very much for your guidance and support since I started composing this thesis proposal.
5. To the International Relations and IPIREL students batch 2018, who have accompanied the author since day one in the university and in every step that author face especially in Class L, IPIREL Community, and International Relations Student Corps. I would love to express my appreciation to each one of you. I am massively pleased that we met, sailing on the same boat, and know each other with a positive vibe.

6. And the last, to myself, Nurul Sakinah Arif. Thank you for your continuous efforts to stay afloat no matter the condition you are in. You have gone through a lot in this phase and you should never forget all those life lessons as provisions for the next phase of your life.

I sincerely hope that this undergraduate thesis could be useful to enrich the International Relations studies especially in the future and could be considered as one of the author efforts to make a contribution to the world's betterment in academic scope.
