EXTENDED GRATITUDE

Within this page, I would like to extend my gratitude for all forms of support given to me during my college years. I would like to personally thank:

1. My first and foremost gratitude goes to Allah SWT, for all of His blessings and mercy, I am able to come to this point. His love and blessings always give me strength, ease, and happiness through my family, friends, and many more.
2. My beloved family whose prayers and supports are substantial from the beginning until the end of the process of pursuing my undergraduate degree. I would like to thank my parents, Ayah and Ibu, for their unconditional love in every support and countless prayers they always give me. They are my true inspirations in life. They taught me everything, gave me strength, shared me life virtues, they gave me everything this world could never. I am grateful to be their daughter and I love them to the point that words could never describe. I would also like to thank my sister Nabila Sazkia for her love and support.
3. Wina, and Titon, my best friend from the very first semester in university until now. I am beyond grateful to call you my best friend. I could not imagine how my university life and even my life would be without your presence. You guys are always there throughout my highest high and lowest low. I will treasure all the love, help, support, joy, and sincerity we share. I hope nothing but your success, health, and happiness.
4. Iffa, Tania, and my other friends especially IPIRELIans batch 2018 whom I could not mention one by one. Thank you for always be there for me and give me such support and motivation in life. Thank you for the great discussions throughout my college years. I am so grateful to have you in my life.
5. My best friend since elementary school; Dinda and Astrid, thank you for always picking up my calls, listening to all my stories, and giving me such valuable advice.
6. My best friend I got from IISMA 2021; Amanda and Santiara. I could never thank you enough for all the love and support I got from pre-departure, during the exchange period, and post the program. Thank you for always sticking around, listening to all my stories, and giving me comfort and lovely advice. I am so happy we have many things in common. Thank you for being such caring friends, best room-mate, and best traveling partners. I am beyond grateful that our paths crossed. I will forever miss the 03.00 AM talks, the afternoon run beside the Han river, the cute café and park hunting, the peaceful picnic, Seoul strolls, and all the precious memories we made.

7. My Dwell 305 friends; Calista, Dini, Angie, Amanda, Santiara, Vian, and Dzaky. Thank you for all the laughter, joys, tears, stories, experiences, and trips we have done together. Thank you for any form of support throughout the whole process of writing this thesis while doing the exchange program. And special thanks to Calista for her eagerness in helping me to find related sources for my thesis every time we passed by the tourist information center in South Korea and found a halal tourism guidebook. It was clearly not a piece of cake process, but your presence and help mean the world to me. I am already and will always miss our first encounter, the sleepless nights during midterm and final examinations, and the midnight snacks hunting to keep us wide awake so that we were able to study together during the exam period. Our trips to Incheon, Paju, Busan, Everland, and every corner in Seoul are truly depicting beautiful 20s. And just like cherry blossoms that bloom in Spring, I see each of you as beautiful as it is that will bloom when the time has come. Those incredible four months will forever linger in my heart.
8. All of the IISMA 2021 Awardees at Hanyang University, you guys are one of the most amazing people I have ever met. I do learn a lot from each of you. Thank you for the chaotic yet memorable memories we shared.
9. My ultimate entertainment; Seventeen, WayV, and NCT. Thank you for the great songs and entertaining content that keep me sane and accompany me during the whole process of this undergraduate thesis. Thank you for not only being a good entertainer but also an inspirational one that gives people motivation to keep doing what they are working on, not giving up on our dreams, and stand still to what we believe.
