Acknowledgement

Firstly, I am grateful to Allah Subhana Wa Ta'ala, who gives me a chance to have a great education and complete it by finishing this skripsi. His guidance, shelter, and answer continuously strengthen me to step this far. Besides, I also want to thank the Prophet Muhammad Shollallohu 'Alaihi Wasallam for his guidance to live a great life. I also want to thank Dr. Suryanto as my skripsi advisor. I am thankful for his knowledge, inspiration, and encouragement to accomplish this skripsi on time.

This work is my dedication to my beloved parents, Muhammad Abdul Rois and Siti Maimunah, who always support me despite our long distance. They love, pray, and support that no one can replace. I also want to thank my brothers and sisters, Zuhan, Imam, and Nayah, who always care for me and support my study. Their success inspired me to keep strong and achieve my dream in my own way. I feel grateful and lucky to have them in my life.

Most enormous thanks to my second parents, Bapak and Ibu Kos, who welcomed and cared for me well in Yogyakarta. They give a comfortable house to stay and social knowledge to interact with the local society. I also want to thank Babe, who provides good menus daily, and Bapak Galon, who always provides fresh water. I could not imagine how I would be without his help and spirit to lift the gallon to the second floor.

Last but not least, this study is a special present to someone who always ask "gimana skripsinya? kok lama banget gak selesai-selesai? Aku dulu 3 bulan aja selesai kok"

Being late to graduate was not a criminal nor a sin. Being late to graduate does not mean that we are doing nothing. It was not a race to choose who was the fastest to graduate. There is no 'late' word. We are always on time on our path. You have your own path, and so do I. It's not like I walk behind you. I am doing great, and I am fine.
