ACKNOWLEDGEMENT

With the grace and mercy of Allah SWT, the most compassionate and merciful, I begin my undergraduate thesis by offering my humble gratitude and praise to the Almighty. All credit and appreciation go to Allah SWT, the lord of the universe, who has bestowed upon me His blessings and enabled me to complete this academic pursuit. May Allah SWT shower His peace and blessings upon Prophet Muhammad, the epitome of kindness and the Messenger of Allah, along with his family and companions, who have set a shining example for all of us to follow.

The writer wishes to extend heartfelt appreciation to everyone who has played a part in the creation of this undergraduate thesis, with special recognition given to the thesis supervisor, Arie Kusuma Paksi, Ph.D. The author would also like to express gratitude to the board examiners, Sidiq Ahmadi, S.IP., M.A., and Dra. Mutia Hariati Hussin, M.Si. Furthermore, the writer would like to convey gratitude to all the lecturers who have imparted knowledge and expertise from the beginning of the academic journey until the completion of this thesis. The author firmly believes that without the invaluable assistance and guidance of these esteemed individuals, this undergraduate thesis would not have been accomplished in a satisfactory manner.

This undergraduate thesis entitled “INDONESIA’S CAPACITY TO OVERCOME THE IMPACT OF COVID-19 ON ITS ECONOMY” was prepared as a necessary condition for obtaining a Bachelor of Political Science degree and submitted to the International Program Department of International Relations, Faculty of Social and Political Science. The writer acknowledges the limitations of their skills and recognizes that this thesis is not without imperfections. Therefore, the author earnestly solicits constructive criticism and recommendations to enhance the quality of this work in the future. It is hoped that this undergraduate thesis will prove to be a valuable contribution to the field of International Relations, serving to enrich the knowledge and understanding of this subject matter in the times ahead.

EXTENDED GRATITUDE

On this page, I offer my sincere appreciation to Allah SWT, the Almighty, Prophet Muhammad SAW which has led to a more advanced civilization, as well as to the individuals who have had a significant impact on my undergraduate journey. I am grateful to those who have supported and guided me throughout the process, and to the remarkable individuals who have crossed paths with me. The successful completion of this thesis would not have been possible without the invaluable assistance and support provided by numerous individuals, both directly and indirectly involved. Thus, the researcher extends heartfelt gratitude to the following individuals:

1. Dr. Ir. Gunawan Budiyanto, MP., IPM. as Chancellor of Yogyakarta Muhammadiyah University.
2. Dr. Takdir Ali Mukti, M.Sc as Dean of the Faculty of Social and Political Sciences, Yogyakarta Muhammadiyah University.
3. Arie Kusuma Paksi, S.I.P., M.A., Ph.D. as a thesis supervisor.
4. Drs. Bambang Wahyu Nugroho, M.Si. as an academic supervisor.
5. Asshifa Magfirani Humanis, S.I.P. as the language advisor in the preparation of the thesis.
6. All lecturers, academic and library staff of the Faculty of Social and Political Sciences, Muhammadiyah University of Yogyakarta.
7. To my dear parents, Mr. Supriyanto and Mrs. Siti Mustafidatun Umriyah, I extend my deepest appreciation for your unwavering support and encouragement throughout my academic journey. Your prayers, from the time I was in the womb until now, have been a source of strength and inspiration. I am grateful for the sacrifices you have made and the countless efforts you have dedicated to my upbringing and education. Your presence in both the highs and lows of my life has been a true blessing. I acknowledge that without your assistance, I would not have been able to successfully complete this thesis. I am truly fortunate to have such loving and caring parents. Lastly, I pray that I may bring you happiness in this world and the hereafter. Amen.
8. To my dear sisters, Sheyla Noor Fitria Ramadhani and Laily Noor Shidqia Qotrunnada those who brings me cheer and joy.

9. Raden Roro Lana Agra Rucita as comrade in arms, life partner, and friend who pulled me from the abyss of despair.
10. Merlyn, Mocil, Gaby, Kancil, and Miyong as fur children (cats) who are always an encouragement every day.
11. Tony Suseno and Ummu Sofkhah as my uncle and my auntie who are like second parents in Yogyakarta.
12. Fadhli Dzil Ikram, Muhammad Zaid (Almarhum), Abudzar, Amanda Yaradhika, and Muhammad Fadhal Akhyari as a roommate who is always there when I am stressed, sad, and happy.
13. Ludhiana Maula Arifhani, Sekar Artiningtyas, Muhammad, Yuqa Dinanta Zette, Ahmad Fauzan, Rizki Memo Nusa Saputra, and other friends from IPIREL 17 those who brings me a lot of experiences and life lessons.
14. To the entire cousins and extended family, thank you for the enthusiasm and prayers over the years.
15. Finally, I would like to express gratitude to myself. Well done, Adan. Thank you for persevering and reaching this point. I appreciate your determination to rise and your commitment to giving your best. Although there will be numerous challenges ahead, remember that this journey is far from over. Stay focused on the desired future and keep pushing forward.

Hopefully, this undergraduate thesis will serve as a valuable contribution to the field of International Relations, enriching its studies in the future. I aspire for this work to be recognized as part of my efforts to contribute to the advancement of academic knowledge, with the ultimate goal of making a positive impact on the world. While composing this thesis, several deficiencies and errors remain. As a result, any constructive critique and recommendations will enhance the quality of the thesis and prove valuable to both authors and readers.
