EXTENDED GRATITUDE

I dedicated this page as an expression of my gratitude to the Almighty Allah SWT and my gratitude to the closest people who played a big role in my undergraduate study, to those who have encouraged and helped me through the process, to the great people that I ever known.

1. Alhamdulillahirabbil 'alamin. Because of his endless blessing and grace, the enormous thanks to Allah Subhanahu Wa Ta'ala, I can finish my undergraduate study with suitable physical, economic, and mental. And the Prophet Muhammad Sallallahu Alaihi Wa sallam whom his people always miss.
2. Most importantly, to myself, thank you for completing undergraduate studies on time. Thank you for striving so hard, patience, persistence, never giving up, and confidence for bringing you to this point. In this phase, the brain and eyes are opened wider, seeing the world is not only by watching television, but that direct contact is the key. Please remember that this is not the final yet, do not be complacent. A long road has just unfolded. Live for Allah SWT and yourself. You did a great job, Devia! Dare to let go of ego, anger, and including people who turn out to be just parasites in your life.
3. To Ayah and Ibu, thank you so much for being a big sponsor of my life. You have been working hard to prepare for my studies to date. Even though you did not have time to go to college, you managed to get your children to graduate and even experience studying abroad. Some say that the success of parents lies in the success of their children. All forms of input and advice gave are very useful in life. Even when I do not know what to do, you guys have prepared something better for me.

4. To Yali, Eyang Uti, Eyang Kakung, Simbah Uti, Alm. Simbah Kakung, thank you for your prayers and support. I believe that the prayers of Eyang and Simbah have made me as strong as I am now. And without a laptop loan from Yali, this thesis might not be as fast as it is now. Not to forget the new family member, Mochaccino si Siput Anaknya Coco Gendud, who has accompanied, annoyed, and became a consolation when we are sad. May all of you live long!
5. For my thesis supervisor, Mrs. Ratih Herningtyas, S.IP., M.A., thank you for the patience and direction that has been given so far. The writing standards provided by you make my thesis much more systematic and structured. I am happy and proud to be one of your students. May Allah SWT always make things easier for you.

8. To Bang Rafyoga Jehan Pratama Irsadanar, S.IP., who has given his time to provide comments regarding my thesis draft. FOIP was the idea he suggested because, at that time, I was stuck but still want to write a thesis about Japan – U.S. alliance. Thank you also for taking responsibility for helping me complete the FOIP under the Shinzo Abe administration. Hopefully, I can also continue my postgraduate studies in Japan! Aamiin.

10. Thanks to my high school friends, or whatever you called it, Disma, Mumtaza, Geta, Keket, Shafa, Almas, and Salma, who still want to be present in my sorrow and joy. When I met you, I only wish I could laugh even louder.
11. My 방탄소년단 (Bangtan Sonyeondan) has been present in my life. Your songs and videos accompany the work of my thesis. Especially for my beloved, Yoongi Oppa, the cure of my broken heart, I wish I could meet you earlier!
12. BEM FISIPOL UMY, Youth Development Community, Keliling. Ina, thank you for being a place where I grew up during my college years. It teaches leadership and has made room for me to continue to grow.

13. Thank you for accompanying and being an encouragement for IPIREL and HI friends whom I cannot mention one by one. When I saw other friends, who had taken another step, I became motivated to achieve it. Even though we have our separate ways, I wish you all the luck out there!
