Abstract

The use of songs in the learning process is a common practice aimed at fostering students' creativity and critical thinking. However, students may struggle with figurative language because it's a challenging topic to understand. Therefore, this research aims to facilitate the learning process by analysing figurative language used in ONE OK ROCK album's "Luxury Disease" and what types of figurative meanings are found in the song lyrics of ONE OK ROCK album's "Luxury Disease". The qualitative method is applied for this research. Furthermore, content analysis serves as a research method to derive reliable and valid insights from texts in relation to their context of utilization. The data source of this research is taken from 13 songs by ONE OK ROCK album's "Luxury Disease". To collect the data, descriptive analysis was conducted. As a result, the first finding showed the use of eight types of figurative language in the album "Luxury Disease" by ONE OK ROCK, there were hyperbole, irony, metaphor, personification, simile, litotes, metonymy, and oxymoron. And from those types, the researcher found 7 of hyperbole, 1 of irony, 29 of metaphor, 7 of personification, 1 of simile, 1 of litotes, 1 of metonymy, and 5 of oxymoron. Additionally, the second finding showed the used of five types of figurative meaning in luxury disease album namely, affective meaning, reflected meaning, connotative meaning, and social meaning. Figurative language in song lyrics serves as a powerful tool for artists to convey emotions, stories, and themes in a creative and evocative manner. It can turn a simple message into a captivating narrative, making the listener connect on a deeper level with the music.
