Alhamdullilahirobbil'alamin is a word that can express my gratitude for being able to complete this thesis. Praise Allah SWT as the world's ruler for all His protection and blessing so I can finish this thesis well. This skripsi is entitled "The Correlation between Self-esteem and Speaking Achievement" and was submitted as a final assignment requirement for achieving a bachelor's degree in English Department of Education, Faculty of Language Education, Universitas Muhammadiyah Yogyakarta.

Proudly, I dedicate this skripsi to my beloved family. Mr. La Saadi and Mrs. Wa Maami, as my parents. Thank you for their never-ending prayers for their daughter. Thank you for the love, advice and all the support they always give to their child so that this research can be completed well. To my older brothers and older sister Samiun, Rusli, Muliana and my younger sister Maisarah who always support me in pursuing my education. This research can be completed with full responsibility with the support of my family who always provide support and positive affirmation to me.

I also convey my deepest appreciation to Mr. Andi Wirantaka, S.Pd., M.Hum., as my thesis supervisor. As well as Mrs. Sri Rejeki Murtiningsih, Ph.D and Mrs. Mariska Intan Sari, M.A., as my thesis examiners. This article was completed with patience, guidance, kindness, and intellectual support in my undergraduate thesis. Moreover, I would like to thank all the English lecturers in the Department of English Education for the experience and knowledge they have given me. I also want to thank all the participants in this research, administrative staff and lecturers who took the time to collect data. This research was only possible with their help.

My sincere thanks are also presented to my friends and those closest to me. Thank you for being the best supporter for me, thank you for always being a friend to confide in and complain about so that this research can be completed.

Lastly, I would like to thank myself for always thinking positively in carrying out this research, thank you for being responsible in completing what has been started. I realize that this research is still far from perfect, but at least I have taken one big step to complete this research.
