DEDICATION

I dedicate this thesis to my parents, my father Muh Aras and my mother Sitti Rabiah, as a result of their success in sending their children to school to achieve a bachelor's degree.

As well as all the servants of God who have been entrusted to me at every step, time, togetherness and ups and downs while living under the roof of this special city, students, and of course love that always coexists in every corner of this city. I call the city, the City of "eternal love". Every corner in this city is full of love and specialness. I hope this love continues to grow following every change in this city.

for the hearts, love and memories that we have made under the umbrella of southern Jogja, we used to call it "Fascist House" I entrust the memories and love in eternity on this sheet so that it will last until my skin and hair are no longer as strong as today.

Thank you for every moment that has passed, hopefully this will be eternity for me and all of us. Our struggle is not over! we have not met the red thread of life!
