ACKNOWLEDGEMENT

Bismillahirrahmanirrahim

Assalamu'alaikum Warahmatullahi Wabarakaatuh

This undergraduate thesis is being submitted as a partial requirement for receiving a bachelor's degree in international relations at Universitas Muhammadiyah Yogyakarta. The research presented here addresses “INDONESIA DIPLOMATIC STRATEGY IN ADDRESSING SOUTH CHINA SEA DISPUTE UNDER JOKOWI'S ADMINISTRATION”, which has been a source of great interest and significance in the field of diplomacy.

The completion of this thesis is a significant milestone in my academic career, and I am grateful to everyone who has helped and mentored me during the process. I would want to express my heartfelt gratitude to my adviser, Prof. Dr. Bambang Cipto, M.A, for his excellent help, support, and patience throughout my study. His experience and insightful criticism helped shape the direction and quality of this work. In addition, I am grateful to the faculty members of the Department of International Relations at Universitas Muhammadiyah Yogyakarta for their assistance and for furnishing me with the requisite resources and knowledge to accomplish this thesis. I would also like to express my gratitude to my family and friends for their unwavering support and understanding during this academic voyage. I have consistently been inspired by your compassion, patience, and encouragement.

This thesis is the outcome of my diligence and commitment; however, it would not have been feasible without the assistance and contributions of the institutions and people mentioned above. I aspire for this research to make a significant contribution to the discipline of diplomacy and to establish a foundation for future research.

EXTENDED GRATITUDE

The preparation and completion of this undergraduate thesis would not have been feasible without the assistance, guidance, and support of a multitude of people who have graciously provided their valuable assistance. The only thing I can say is to express my appreciation to the people who have assisted in the completion of this undergraduate thesis. As a result, I have dedicated this page to expressing my heartfelt appreciation and to specifically honour:

1. My beloved parents, Tri Nur Wahyudi and Hepy Adityarini, for imparting in me the importance of education and for consistently believing in my capabilities. Your dedication and endeavours have enabled this accomplishment to be realised. I have been able to endure the most difficult circumstances because of your unwavering support and confidence in me.
2. My younger brother, Muhammad Arkan Firdaus, thank you for always being a caring brother even though sometimes annoying but you are a great person to talk to. And hopefully you will get to the university that you wanted.
3. My grandparents from both sides, I am grateful for your unwavering affection and for consistently providing me with solace and warmth. Your life teachings and anecdotes have instilled in me the significance of perseverance and resilience.
4. My advisor, Prof. Dr. Bambang Cipto, M.A, for his excellent help, support, and patience throughout my study. His experience and insightful criticism helped shape the direction and quality of this work
5. To all the international relations lectures that I cannot mentioned the name one by one, your guidance and support have been invaluable. Thank you for sharing your wisdom, for pushing me to excel, and for always being there to offer a helping hand. Your encouragement and constructive feedback have been crucial in shaping this work.
6. All UMY administrative staff of the Department of International Relations helped me in the administration process throughout my study in University of Muhammadiyah Yogyakarta
7. My best friends, Daeng Prasetyo Prawes, Firma Afta Ghifary, Ilyasha Nabil Imani, Rizky Rimbawan, who have always been there for me and all of the struggles we face. I really did enjoy study in this university with you guys. I always feel like to go back in time to the events of the fun things that we did together.

8. To my kontrakan friends, Ahmad Prasetyo, Luthfi Fahmi Amali Umar, and Ilyasa Nabel Imani, who have always accompanied me for all of the years throughout college. It has been nice meeting you all and the excitement we have.
9. To my UNIRES friends that I cannot mentioned one by one.
10. To all of the members of SEA specially, Fadhila, Ririn, Shalli, Yosi, Aurel, Dila Gustinova, Fairuz, Fauzi, Firda, Indri, Lulu, Meyda, Nabel, Raka, Rae, Rezha, Wulan, Yulisti, Firda and all of the members that I cannot mentiond one by one. Thank you for the cooperation, camaraderie, and enthusiasm you have shared. Through our shared experiences, I have learned invaluable lessons not only in knowledge but also in leadership, teamwork, life values and friendships.
11. To my IMM friends, as a token of appreciation for all that has been given to me and as a sign of my gratitude for the invaluable opportunities and experiences. I have learned a lot about the cadre formation of Muhammadiyah and the advocacy of being the agent of change in youth.
12. My classmates, I am grateful for the exchange of ideas and the collaborative atmosphere. My academic experience has been substantially enhanced and this thesis has been significantly enhanced by our discussions and teamwork.
13. To everyone who believed in me and provided support in any form, this work is a testament to your faith in me. Thank you from the bottom of my heart. Your support has been instrumental in helping me reach this milestone, and I am forever grateful.
14. Lastly to myself, as a testament to my hard work, perseverance, and determination throughout this academic endeavour. This work is a testament to my accomplishments, my development, and my voyage. It serves as an affirmation that with sheer determination and diligence, anything is feasible.

Once more, the assistance, guidance, and support of a multitude of people who have contributed to the completion of this undergraduate thesis were instrumental in its success. May Allah SWT. bestow boundless bounties upon all the prayers, support, assistance, and precious items. I hope that they will always be protected by His grace and shade. I am optimistic that the readers and, of course, myself will benefit from the completion of this undergraduate thesis. I aspire to leverage the advantages of this undergraduate thesis in my future role as a lecturer.
