EXTENDED GRATITUDE

Within this page, I would like to extend my gratitude to all forms of support that have been given to me while I was studying and provided very meaningful moments. I would like to thank:

1. Thank you very much to my parents who have given the best for me and thanks to them, I can study at this university. They have helped me financially and emotionally so that I can survive until the moment I want to graduate. The two of them also always motivate me to keep going and not give up on what I want to achieve. Once again, thank you so much.
2. Thank you very much to my family, especially my grandmother who looked after me while I was outside from my hometown back in South Kalimantan. She is also the one who has helped me emotionally and provided great emotional support whenever I come to her house. Thanks to her, I can also feel kinship of family even though I am far from my hometown.
3. Thank you very much to my international besties and buddies who have accompanied me from the time I got enrolled in university until now. They were the ones who were always there when I wanted to make friends during the pandemic, even when I went to college offline, we still keep in touch. Even though we only meet via Zoom or other online meeting platforms, I feel our friendship grows stronger as time goes by. Hopefully our friendship will last for a long time.
4. Thank you very much to friends in IPIREL class who have accepted me whoever I Am. Thanks to you all, I can be myself without being afraid to socialize due to my past trauma. Not only that, you guys have also given me many memories that I will never forget. Maybe I don't have many moments with some people but I will always cherish the moments that we have made together.
5. Thank you very much to the following people whose names I mentioned; Nisa, Rahma, and Videl. These wonderful girls are three of my close friends who have helped me to survive while I was in Jogja. I consider them as God's intermediaries to look after me and make me feel comfortable even though I live alone. The three of them have introduced me to places such as cafes, iconic spots in Jogja, and many more. They are also the ones who always entertain me and make me happy every time I meet them.

6. I would also like to thank all the Halo Deck folks who have given me all forms of fun that I will never forget. Halo Deck was my first hangout group in university and became one of the best hangout groups in supporting each other.
7. A special thanks to one of my close friends, Nadhif, because he is also one of God's intermediaries who helped me to guide and assist me while writing my first article. Hopefully one day we can write articles together.
8. Another special thanks to one of my close friends whom I think our meeting was very unexpected, namely Indah. Thank you very much for all the funny jokes and moments that always entertain me while I'm in Jogja.
9. I also not forget to thank KKN LEX's friends who have made my KKN experience blissful and amazing.
10. I also say many thanks to the two people I've met recently; Araya and Amanda, because they are two of the people who have made my final semester enjoyable.
11. Thank you also to the boarding house landlord (Ibu Kos) and her husband who have looked after me while staying in the boarding house and I consider them both as my adoptive parents.
