STATEMENT OF AUTHENTICITY

STATEMENT OF AUTHENTICITY

I hereby declare that my thesis titled "IMPLEMENTATION OF SUSTAINABLE DEVELOPMENT GOALS (SDGS) ON RESPONSIBLE CONSUMPTION AND PRODUCTION IN THE UNITED ARAB EMIRATES (UAE)" is original and has not been submitted for obtaining a bachelor's degree, either at Universitas Muhammadiyah Yogyakarta or any other higher education institution.

Furthermore, my final project is also supported by a similarity check through the Turnitin system, which shows that the similarity index does not exceed 20 percent.

This thesis does not contain works or opinions that have been written or published by others, unless clearly stated in the bibliography. I make this statement truthfully, and if any discrepancies are found in this statement in the future, I am willing to accept academic sanctions in accordance with the regulations in force at Universitas Muhammadiyah Yogyakarta.

MOTTO

"Allah does not burden a soul beyond that it can bear."

(Al-Baqarah 2:286)

"Even through the chaos, stay strong and keep your head high."

(Red Velvet – Psycho)

"Somewhere, something incredible is waiting to be known. The cosmos is within us. We are made of star-stuff. We are a way for the universe to know itself. The universe is not required to be in perfect harmony with human ambition. We can reach for the stars, and in doing so, we find our true purpose and the beauty of discovery."

PREFACE

With deep gratitude to Allah SWT for all blessings and guidance, Alhamdulillahirabbil'alamin, all praise and thanks be to Allah SWT for granting me health, strength, and patience, allowing me to complete this thesis. This thesis is titled "Implementation of Sustainable Development Goals (SDGs) on Responsible Consumption and Production in the United Arab Emirates (UAE)" as a requirement to complete my undergraduate program.

The completion of this thesis would not have been possible without the assistance, guidance, and support of many people. Therefore, I would like to express my utmost gratitude to:

1. My sincerest gratitude goes to Mrs. Siti Muslikhati, S.IP., M.Si, my highly inspiring and perfectionist thesis supervisor. Thank you for all the guidance, advice, and endless encouragement. Your meticulousness and perfectionism have provided invaluable support, enabling me to pass my proposal seminar and complete the thesis with minimal revisions. Without your direction, I would not have achieved optimal results.
2. My deepest thanks to my beloved parents, Papa and Mama, who have constantly provided moral, material, and unconditional love. From the very beginning of my education until now, your prayers have accompanied every step of my journey. Thank you for all the sacrifices—your time, energy, and constant attention—that have been given endlessly for my success. Your love has been an unparalleled source of strength, supporting me through all the challenges in my academic journey. This accomplishment is the result of your love, hard work, and sacrifice.
3. My heartfelt thanks to my brother, Mas Amri, for all your prayers, appreciation, and unwavering support. Your presence as an elder sibling has been one of the key sources of motivation throughout my thesis process. Thank you for every word of encouragement, care, and assistance that always comes when I need it. Your support, both moral and emotional, has been one of the driving forces that kept me going to the end.
4. My deepest gratitude to my fellow comrades in the struggle in working on my thesis, Araa who has been a part of this long journey. Your support, enthusiasm, and companionship have been a unique strength that helped me keep moving forward amidst the various challenges and obstacles. Thank you for all the moments of shared knowledge, tireless discussions, and the laughter that always warmed the atmosphere amid the pressure. Together, we have faced days full of struggle, giving our best effort to complete this thesis.

5. My heartfelt thanks to my dear friends, especially Delvina, Videl, Zalfa, Hajar, and Rifky, who have not only been discussion partners and a place to exchange ideas but also companions who were always there through the ups and downs of university life. With you, every step felt lighter, whether in facing academic challenges or enjoying memorable moments outside the classroom. Our adventures exploring Jogja's culinary delights and discovering aesthetic and viral spots have enriched our experiences and left sweet memories that will never be forgotten. Thank you for your constant presence, bringing laughter, enthusiasm, and endless support. You are an irreplaceable part of my journey in this city, and our friendship will always be one of the most cherished memories I hold.
6. My deepest thanks to Kevin Lius Bong, who has provided invaluable motivation throughout the thesis-writing process. Through his inspiring and energetic content, I found the strength to keep moving forward in the face of various challenges. Kevin's wise words, consistently shared, reminded me that every small step brings us closer to our goals. This support has had a significant impact on my academic journey.
7. My deepest thanks to Jisung, a member of NCT Dream, who has provided entertainment and motivation during the thesis-writing process. Amid the challenges, Jisung's music and performances were always a source of happiness and inspiration. His dedication as an idol has inspired me to keep working hard. Thank you for all the positive moments you've shared.
8. My thanks go to Red Velvet, NIKI, and HIVE!, whose music has been a source of entertainment and encouragement throughout the thesis-writing process. Your songs provided calm and strength amid pressure, helping me stay focused and motivated to complete this work.

I hope this thesis can contribute to the development of knowledge, particularly regarding the implementation of the Sustainable Development Goals (SDGs) in responsible consumption and production in the United Arab Emirates. May this research serve as a reference for relevant parties, whether in academia, policy-making, or among practitioners, in their efforts to achieve sustainable development.

Moreover, I hope this thesis will inspire further, more in-depth research and serve as a foundation for concrete solutions to address global challenges related
