EXTENDED GRATITUDE

The success of writing this thesis would not have been realized and completed well without help, guidance and encouragement from various parties. On this occasion, with all humility and sincerity, the author would like to thank:

1. All of my family, especially my lovely parents, Mama and M.R. Who have given me the opportunity to experience school at Universitas Muhammadiyah Yogyakarta and also always supporting me especially when I went to student exchange to Malaysia.
2. All the lecturers and staff at the International Program of International Relations (IPIREL) who have provided very useful knowledge and facilitated me during my studies.
3. To My girlfriend who always support me and remind me to always finish my thesis and you are my inspiration to be better day by day.
4. The "HOR" of my gang during their undergraduate studies, which was balanced between all their treatments. Can complete student exchange obligations together even though they are from different countries in one semester and become Jogja cafe explorers to complete assignments. (Wildan, Wulan, Gadis, Okky, Adel, Shohib).
5. All of my friend that always beside of me Altef, Altaf, Japra, etc. Because they always made my day when I studied in Yogyakarta.
