EXTENDED GRATITUDE

Bismillah, through this paper I would like to examine my deepest gratitude for these following people who always give me support and for those who also contributed and involved in my university experiences started from the beginning of first year of study until this undergraduate thesis. Alhamdullillah, finally time already warned me that this university journey has come to an end. Therefore, I personally would like to deliver few words to some person below:

1. My most important and precious persons in this world, Mama, Papa and Dek Fara. Thank you for these whole year in supporting me to achieve my dreams through your pray, moral support and funding for my study. Without both you, I can't imagine if I'm able to experience this important occasion and finish my study. Words are powerless to express my gratitude for both of you.
2. My fellow "Mbledos Squad", Nadia, Sle and Sekar. Dear Nadia and Sle, thank you for keeping your supports for me for every minute of our struggle on finishing our undergraduate thesis together. The fire that we created finally turn out into blithesome ending. Without your spirit, I can't imagine that I could finish this thesis in a short time. Dear Sekar, thank you for being a mother for three of us. You did a prominent role for us, without your dedications, we might still lost in translation from thesis requirements. I wish the best of lucks for all of you. Be brave, and be proud of what you have, that's the only ticket to achieve your dream.

3. My fellow undergraduate thesis fighters, Dimas, Adam, Fahrul, Luna, Kang Juju, Elang and Lek Amril, thank you for your consistency for providing me support whether its morale or technical support for me to make my undergraduate thesis finished sooner.
4. To all my fellow IPIRELIANS-mates that I cannot mention one by one, I'm so grateful to have known all of you! Each of you has an important role for me, and brings different colors to my life. Thank you very much for the story at the university. Bye!, See you, soon, when we become success person together!.

For some people that did not mention above, I am truly sorry for that and I appreciate your support psychically and physically during this period of time.
