Acknowledgement

First and foremost, I express my highest gratitude to Allah SWT for blessing, love, opportunity, health, and mercy to complete this undergraduate thesis. Shalawat and salam are also addressed to the Prophet Muhammad SAW who had delivered the truth to human beings in general and Muslim in particular.

Secondly, I would like to thank to all of the lecturers of the English Language Education Department for sharing their knowledge and support during the learning processes. Moreover, my biggest thanks, appreciation, and respect to my undergraduate thesis supervisor Mrs. Puput Arfiandhani, M.A who has given her time and effort to explain all the part of the research.

Then, my sincere gratefulness goes to my beloved parents who dedicated their life to support and motivated me, also with their sincere love to always pray to Allah. I believe they are the only reason that makes me keep going to finish this project. Although I could never be able repay their services, however I would do anything which make them happy and proud of me. Then, I hope this knowledge is beneficial for my family and also for all the people in need.

I am also thankful to my closest person who always support, accompany and help me in financial terms, so I can finish this research. In addition, for my classmates, "PBI A 2016" who has given me support, and a lot of experiences during learning process, I would not forget all things we have gone through together during these four year time and I believe we can meet someday for helping each other.

Abstract

All the people believe that motivation is very important for students when studying any subjects especially English. In fact there are many aspects that the students need when learning English, however the students need motivation more because motivation encourages the students for learning more seriously. If the students do not have motivation in their own, the students might experience the opposite situation. This research aimed to find out the factors that make the students demotivated to learn English. The researcher got the data from six students of the first year students at a private senior high school in Yogyakarta. The researcher revealed some findings namely, poor quality of teaching method, irrelevant material, the last is unsupported the classroom environment.
