First, I would like to express my appreciation to Allah SWT for assisting me greatly in working on this thesis, granting health and smoothness in the work of this thesis, for this thesis would not have been completed on time if it had not been for his permission. Also, thanks to our Prophet Muhammad SAW for continuing to lead me as his Ummah to walk on the shining path. Alhamdulillahirobbil 'alamin, my endless gratitude goes to the Department of English Education, University of Muhammadiyah Yogyakarta, who has accepted my thesis, "Teacher preparation for asynchronous e-learning classes during the covid-19 pandemic," as the final prerequisite for graduation. Mrs. Eko Purwanti, as my thesis supervisor, deserves the highest praise. Thank you for taking the time to complete this thesis using your knowledge, motivation and patience. Also, to Mrs. Evi Puspitasari and Mrs. Fitri Rahmawati as examiners who have provided advice and assistance in completing this thesis perfectly.

This thesis is dedicated to my dear family, particularly my parents (Sarjono and Ermi Faridah). Especially to my parents, who have always supported and convinced me to be grateful and proud of myself throughout my life path to complete my undergraduate degree. Without their help and prayers, I would not have made it this far. I would not have been able to get to this point without their care and trust in me. I can't say much more because they play such a vital role in my life.

I'd also like to express my gratitude to my friends, particularly class E, for their kind welcome into your lives. For all of the trials and tribulations that we have faced together, we want to discover a way to success that will benefit many people. Four years with you is a brief but extremely valuable time in my life. I adore you all.

Last but not least is the organization that has aided me in becoming a fantastic person with exceptional soft skills, namely IMM FPB UMY. I am stunned because of the tremendous impact this organization has made in my life. I'd like to express my gratitude to the people I've met here.
