PREFACE

This paper picture the general political condition in Taiwan and focusing on the winning of Kuomintang Party on 2008 general election, after defeating Democratic Progressive Party. By this, I try to explain the way Kuomintang Party and its candidate Ma Ying Jeau, framed both international and internal issues in Taiwan, in order to gain support from the Taiwanese and bring down the incumbent government.

This descriptive undergraduate thesis is aimed as the obligation to graduate from International Relations Department. For the completion of this I would like to yield “Alhamdulillah and Allahu Akbar !!” Thanks to Allah SWT, for blessing me with ‘miracles’, Nabi Muhammad SAW, with all his families and disciples. Along with the completion of the thesis, there are a lot of people’s help and assistance. Here I personally thank the following :

- My advisor, Sugeng Riyanto, S.IP, M.Si, for giving me the assistance, guidance, courage, patience and kindness and inspiring me as well
- Grace Lestariana, S.IP, M.Si., the First Examiner who helps me a lot in checking my writing and sharpen the substance of this thesis
- Dian Azmawati, S.IP., the Second Examiner for the correction and questions
