Preface

Praise be to Allah, Lord of the Worlds. Having work for several months, eventually my 1st undergraduate thesis can be binded and enjoyed in the University's Library. This blue cover's researchs has presented to enhance the discourse about Russian Politics in respond to the World's today. Particularly, this research made to concern about the development of Russian Politic and the relation with North Atlantic Treaty Organization.

Many concenssions had been made by Russia and NATO's member such as Partnership For Peace, North Atlantic Cooperation Council until Permanent Joint Council. But unfortunately, those concenssions can not guarantee the harmony of a relation between NATO and Russia. Many enmities stained the agreement between NATO and Russia such as NATO's enlargement, conflict in Kosovo and etc. These enmities brought detrimental effect for Russia in many times. Because Russia has no alliance and strength since the Soviet Union collapsed in 1991. Later, this condition had been threaten Russia and forced her into corner. Moreover ex-Warsaw Pact member such as Poland, Hungary, Chezchnya and etc also joint with North Atlantic Treaty Organization.

Shortly, in 2002 NATO and Russia had committed to build a new council named NATO Russia Council. This councils brought a new hope for the future of NATO Russia relation. Either NATO or Russia agreed to work closely together to respond to international issues and improve the security in Europe.

Apart from it establishments, the writer tries to question and analyze the missions of Russia in NATO Russia Council. Mainly because this research focus on
