

ABSTRACT

This research aims at: 1) Finding out the learning achievements in Aqidah-Akhlak subject of the students of Islamic Education of UMY 2013/2014, 2) Finding out the worshipping discipline level of Islamic Education of UMY 2013/2014, 3) Revealing the correlation of the learning achievements in Aqidah-Akhlak subject with the worshipping discipline level of the students of Islamic Education of UMY 2013/2014.

The type of the research is field research with the quantitative approach applying the descriptive analytic method. The research subject is 40 students of Islamic Education of UMY 2013/2014 as respondents. By random sampling, the data collected by using Likert-Scale questionnaires model. The data is analyzed using the correlation model of Pearson moment product correlation. The data processing in this research uses SPSS version 16.0 for windows.

This research result shows that the learning achievement in Aqidah-Akhlak subject of the students of Islamic Education of UMY 2013/2014 is in high category that is 40% and the worshipping discipline level of the students of Islamic Education of UMY 2013/2014 is in medium level that is 37.5%. After the correlation test is done on the learning achievements in Aqidah-Akhlak subject with the worshipping discipline level, the value gained is 0.026 This value is significant with sig value <0.05 .

Keywords: the learning achievement in Aqidah-Akhlak subject, the worshipping discipline level.