

THE IMPACT OF PROPHETIC PARENTING IN SUPPRESSING
CHILDREN BULLYING BEHAVIOUR
(Case Study in Baledono District)

ABSTRACT

This research aims at finding out the impact of prophetic parenting on suppressing children bullying behavior. Prophetic parenting is an Islamic parenting way that focuses on role model aspect, fair attitude, avoiding favoritism, knowing the method in giving advice to children, avoiding to denounce children's attitude, giving children their rights, and praying for children. Bullying behavior is an emotional, verbal, or physical attack that recur toward other children who are susceptible and children who really cannot defend themselves because of their size and power.

This research used case study approach that was conducted on families in Baledono District, with the research subject were children in general, and 19 families that further were down sized into 8 families to be dug deeper specially. The data gathering means was parenting questionnaire for preliminary research to decide the subject, observation, interview, and documentation. The data analysis used was descriptive qualitative analyze technique.

The research result indicates that the general description of children bullying in Baledono on the verbal dimension occurs with medium intensity, meanwhile on the indirect and physical dimension occur with low intensity. Prophetic parenting has been applied by the Baledono society even though it was still limited in technical aspect. The characteristic of prophetic parenting that has been applied includes another parenting such as authoritarian, democratic, and permissive. Good and correct application of a prophetic parenting can keep children away from bullying behavior.
