EXTENDED GRATITUDE

Within this page, I would like to extend my gratitude for all forms of supports given to me during my college years. I would like to personally thank:

1. My family, Abah, Mama, Alya, and Syauqi. All my hard work, effort, and achievements so far are for Mama and Abah who have also worked hard to be able to finance my education up to this stage. Your prayers and efforts are very valuable to me, that's why I also do all of this not only for myself but also for Mama and Abah. Abah and Mama have sacrificed many things for me, I really appreciate all of that, I hope that in the future I can make Abah and Mama happy. My dearest old sister, Alya. Thank you also for guiding, reprimanding, supporting, and motivating me to become 'someone' in the future. Even though, sometimes we always have different thoughts and opinions, I always appreciate the experiences and lessons that I can take from all those differences. And to my old brother, Syauqi. Thank you for always praying for and supporting me in whatever decision I make. Everything I'm going through now is still the beginning of a real life's journey, I hope that Abah and Mama can always witness and pray for success of me, Alya and Syauqi.

2. Nabila, Rizka, and Anisa. You guys are so incredible. I never imagined our friendship would last this long. You guys who accompanied me from the beginning of college until I witnessed your graduation and now, I made it to this stage are always with you guys. Anisa, thank you for always supporting me and pushing me to finish this. You guys are so meaningful for me, you are the ones who motivated me to be like you, you witnessed all my struggles to finish this even though I did not witness your struggles. See you on top, guys.

3. Rina, Tania, and Syasya. My comrades who are pursuing degrees to be able to graduate together. I also didn't think that we would be fighting together, staying up until dawn to be able to finish this thesis with you. Thank you for accompanying and willing to fight together.

4. Pers Mahasiswa and Komahi UMY. Home where I process and learn many things. Thank you to this big family who has accepted me since I was a freshman at UMY until I became the person I am now.
