Motto

“The fear of the Lord is the beginning of knowledge; fools despise wisdom and instruction.”
(Proverbs 1:7). According the first scriptures of Genesis 2:17 “But of the tree of the knowledge of good and evil you shall not eat, for in the day that you eat of it you shall surely die.”

The God’s prophet Isaiah received God’s guidance in Isaiah 11:9 “They shall not hurt or destroy in all my holy mountain; for the earth shall be full of knowledge of the Lord as the waters cover the sea.”

“Blind belief is dangerous” A Kenyan Proverb of Knowledge

I hereby present to,

Acknowledgement

It is by God's grace and pleasure that I have received good health, blessings and guidance towards the completion of my academic studies. Furthermore, I extend gratitude to a special number of individuals who have been instrumental towards the achievement of this dream. My head supervisor, Mr. Nuryakin, has provided me with constant feedback, advice and guidance while inspiring and challenging my critical thinking skills and ideas in creating a wholesome relevant research study. Furthermore, my co-supervisor, Dr. Ika Nurul, has dedicated her time off her busy schedule to ensure her research methods academic teachings are well understood and applied on in research. My special thanks also goes to the head of department of management, Dr. Arni, who has inspired a class of hardworking and educative supervisors and professors that have guided me well through my study. I am very delighted to have received this opportunity from Muhammadiyah Yogyakarta University to advance and expand my knowledge potential. In addition, my parents and siblings have instilled in me humility, patience and support that has enabled me to complete my master's study.
